On motion of _____, which carried ____, the following resolution was adopted:

A RESOLUTION TO CHANGE THE NAME OF PORTIONS OF MOORE HOUSE ROAD AND ALL OF WASHINGTON ROAD, TO BALLARD STREET

WHEREAS, it has been determined that improved street signage in the Yorktown village area by extending the Ballard Street designation is desirable; and

WHEREAS, extending the Ballard Street designation would further serve to avoid possible confusion during responses by York County emergency personnel; and

WHEREAS, it has been proposed to change the name of portions of Moore House Road and all of Washington Road, to Ballard Street; and

WHEREAS, the commander of the U.S. Coast Guard Reserve Training Center in Yorktown and the superintendent of the Colonial National Historical Park support this proposal; and

WHEREAS, Section 20.5-79(d), Subdivision Ordinance, York County Code, provides that names of recorded streets shall be changed only by resolution of the Board of Supervisors; and

WHEREAS, the proposed street name has been determined to be acceptable relative to applicable provisions of the York County Subdivision Ordinance;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the York County Board of Supervisors this ____ day of _____, 1999, that it does hereby extend Ballard Street from Water Street to the U. S. Coast Guard Reserve Training Center, Yorktown, including only the portions of Moore House Road that run through the Yorktown battlefield and all of Washington Street; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the County Administrator be and is hereby authorized to transmit said approval to all affected property owners on Moore House Road and Washington Road, various County departments, the postmaster, public utilities, and private companies that may have an interest in this change.
